From the Georgetown Times.

Many of our older home readers will remember "Pete; the talking crow," that lived and flourished in this place some thirty-five years ago. Pete was one of the "institutions" of the town, but was cut off in the prime of his glory by a luckless shot from a young man who had not formed his acquaintance. The young people among us who have frequently heard of this remarkable bird will doubtless read with interest of his "life and adventures" as furnished by his biographer, Gen. T. C. Flournoy, originally published fifteen years ago, which we now reproduce.

Life and Adventures of Pete.

Georgetown, Kentucky, is certainly the most remarkable place in the world for birds. Who has not heard of Pete?—the illustrious crow which was raised and owned by Mr. John Adams, of this town? Pete—that everybody admired? This crow—without having anything done to his tongue, and with no other advantage, than that of being brought up in a hatter's shop, among the boys and journeymen, could undoubtedly talk better than any parrot in the world ever talked.

But to begin with the history. Pete "in his youth" was once taken to the Fourteen Bridge, on a fishing party, where he got some very good minnows to eat, and always afterwards, to the day of his death, he was a devoted fisherman. The moment Pete saw the fishing poles brought out, he was as keen as a briar to go, and go he would; and he would help himself to the very first fish that was caught, big or little. If you scolded at him or took up a switch and threatened to whip him, he was off. He would fly straight to his master's house in Georgetown, where he knew he had friends, and where he was sure to be fed like a gentleman. Mr. Adams has feelingly told me, "that if he had but one piece of bread in the world, he would have halved it with Pete."

Among the earliest budding of Pete's genius was his fondness for racing. He was taken to one or two races at first; but after that he was sure to attend as a volunteer; until at length, becoming much excited on the field, he mounted the stand, and in a fit of inspiration, he gave the word "go," to the horses, and this was the first word ever spoken by Pete. This speech met the most unbounded applause—the beating of Henry by Eclipse was a fool to it. From that moment Pete was a made man. He was everywhere acknowledged as principal manager of the turf—Pete knew everybody and everybody knew Pete. He was constantly seen in the thickest of the crowd—chief cook and bottle washer. He did not always know when to give the word go, but he knew how to do it, as well as Uncle Ned or Captain Burbridge himself.

It should be remembered to the credit of Pete, that he was the staunch advocate of temperance—many a bottle of new whisky has Pete broken; and many a quarrel has he had with Fely for doing it. And here it is proper to notice a charge which has been brought against Pete—it has been said, that Pete was in the habit of drinking the whisky, by way of concealing the theft; upon the same principle, that a house is often burned down, after it has been robbed in order to prevent discovery. But I do not believe a word of it. I consider the whole story, whether written or spoken, as a base slander upon Pete's reputation. What! Pete drink whisky? Good new whisky? The thing is impossible. Pete was possessed of too much self-respect. He was always as sober as a judge. And besides, I do not believe that the silliest crow that ever croaked, would be stupid enough to taste one drop of whisky, although it might roll in oceans at his feet. Had Pete been called on to drink, he would have risen on tiptoe, and with his accustomed eloquence, he would have replied: "No, gentlemen, no. Not one drop of whisky will I drink. It is whisky and that alone, which fills the poor-house and penitentiary throughout christendom, and from one extremity of the earth to the other." We are informed by Mr. Adams and two other gentlemen, that upon one occasion, a stupid wagoner, who had about a quart of new whisky in him, at the time, and whose name happened to be Bill, was terribly alarmed by Pete. The fellow, it seems, was driving his team through the streets of Georgetown, when Pete took a seat upon the top of his wagon, and began to call out "Bill, oh, Bill, oh, Bill." The fellow looked up, and without waiting for an explanation from Pete, he rolled off in the mud, flat on his back.

The hero of our story had a perfect contempt for his wild brethren. He evidently avoided them, and upon one occasion, having been thrown into company with some of them at a hog killing, which he was very fond of attending, Pete actually retired to the inside of Mr. Olfitt's porch, to avoid what he considered bad company—they could not talk, they were no company for Pete.

I have been told that Pete is charged with being a mongrel. Now, I take upon myself, as an ornithologist, and as the biographer of Pete, to say that the thing is false, out and out; that Pete was as genuine a crow as ever was seen; that he had not one drop of parrot blood in him; that he was as much superior to a parrot as a mocking-bird is to a sparrow; as Hyperion to a Satyr.

As a distinguished trait in the character of Pete, it deserves to be mentioned that he had not the slightest aversion to gunpowder. On the contrary, he was particularly fond of military tactics; and made it a point to attend all the musters in the neighborhood of Georgetown. Musters and races were his favorite pastimes—in a word, he was a Kentuckian—and to all intent and purposes, the very pink of chivalry.

It has long been doubted, whether Mr. Burke was greatest as a speaker or writer? But there is no such doubt in relation to Pete—oratory was unquestionably his strong suit; touch him on that, and he was always at home. He could say good morning, with perfect distinctness; and this was his favorite salutation, he would often use it forty times a day, and at all hours of the day. Mr. Ford informs me, that he met Pete one morning, at market, and that he heard him say "cold, frosty morning," as plain as he ever heard anything in his life. But his longest and best speech is this: "Oh, Bill, tell George Sawyer to come here." This speech was pronounced with the utmost distinctness, twenty times a day, on an average, and has been witnessed by hundreds and perhaps thousands, with the highest admiration. Gentlemen have been known to visit Georgetown from a hundred miles, expressly to witness the powers of Pete's eloquence.

As the writer of history, bound by all the sanctions of truth, I am compelled to say that Pete's morality was somewhat questionable. He has been heard to swear repeatedly, and upon one occasion (doubtless without reflection) he went so far as to abuse a lady in her own house. Pete, it seems, was on a visit, and in the course of the evening, he amused himself by pulling out the feathers of a hat which lay upon the bed, in one of the chambers. Pete was at length detected in the very act, or as a lawyer would say, "he was taken with the manor." The lady informed him that she considered him an intruder, and that she would have him put out of her house. Pete's Irish was instantly up—he told the lady to her face—"curse your soul. I'll tell George Sawyer." The lady of course retired; she could not possibly stand such language as this, and Pete strutted through the house for some time, and did exactly as he pleased. Who but Pete. As if he said—

"Upon my life, I am a lord indeed! And not a tinker, nor Christopher Sly."

Now, this I admit, was all wrong and perfectly inexcusable; but then I would like to know what crow in creation, or man either, is without a fault? and, besides, it should be known to posterity, that Pete's general character was good, and in such assemblage of perfections it will not be a matter of wonder, if some alloy of frailty was intermingled. My deliberate opinion is, that the darkest shade of his character was a tendency to profane swearing, when he considered himself insulted. Take that blot from his escutcheon, and it will shine like the morning star.

Pete lived to the age of about three years, and was clearly progressive up to the moment of his death, in his knowledge and accomplishments as a scholar and a gentleman. His lamented death took place just twenty years ago, in the ever memorable year 1832; that year so fatal to genius. The same year in which more great souls departed, than in any other two years, in all the annals of history—Mackintosh, Goethe, Crabbe, Tenterton, Carroll, Sampte, Walter Scott and Pete.

history was unfortunately shot by a nephew of Mr. Ber. Smith, of Edge Hill, a stranger who knew nothing of the standing and character of Pete. He fell in the suburbs of Georgetown, on the branch of the Royal Spring, near Mr. Crawford's house. Upon the melancholy news of his demise, it was at once determined to bury him with the highest respect. His remains were accordingly placed in a handsome coffin and interred in classic ground, near the college edifice; the bell was regularly tolled. The obsequies were attended by a large procession of boys; many a wet cheek was seen at the burial, and we are told that the children of Mr. Adams were not the only ones that shed tears.

How easily might his life have been saved, if only moderate caution had been observed by the citizens of Georgetown. Still, it was not the want of regard, but the excess of it, that was fatal in this instance. No body ever dreamed that he would be shot through a mistake. Never did the advantage of stars and garters and ribbons strike me so forcibly, before; for the want of some such badge of distinctions a crow of genius lost his life.

The author of this sketch never saw Pete but once; he was then on the top of Mr. Geo. Brown's house, in Georgetown. The street below was full of gentlemen on horseback, and Pete supposing it to be a race, was engaged in giving the word "go." It was court day, but nobody had informed him of the fact; so he was evidently acting under a mistake at the time.

Of one thing the public may be assured, that no fact stated has been exaggerated, in the slightest degree—that the whole of his memoir, no single incident is given, but upon the highest authority. The truth is, that most of the facts contained in this history, have been actually sworn to. Mike Allgaier, upon telling the story in New Orleans, and finding he was not believed, went before a justice of the peace and solemnly swore to every word he had stated. After all the pains I have taken, there is very little doubt that the fate of Homer has been that of Pete, and that many of his best speeches have been lost to the world forever.

We have also had a robin which crowed very finely indeed, as much like a bantam as you could possibly imagine. He was here two seasons. Sometime in the spring of his first visit, he had the misfortune to lose a leg, which affected his spirits very much, and suspended his crowing for about two months. After that he was again heard to crow as usual, throughout the fall. During winter he was absent; probably on a visit to the South. The next spring he returned to us again, the very same one-legged robin-red-breast, and crowed as finely as ever. Whether he is now dead, or has only changed his residence, is quite uncertain. All we know is, that we have not had the pleasure of seeing his robinship for about two years. Wherever he may be, we regard him, if living, as our bird, and will crow him against any chicken or old dove in the world for any amount. But I am likely to forget the apothegm of my old friend, Colonel Doherty, adopted from Falstaff, I believe—that "brevity is the soul of wit," and so I close.

From the Carroll Democrat.

Blewett, the People's Candidate is Out.

I announce myself a candidate to represent this the Sixth Congressional District in the next Congress.

MY CREED.

The late war was either right or wrong. It right in part, right in all; if wrong in part, wrong in all. Therefore all things done to sustain it, if right, should be faithfully executed. If wrong, consequently unconstitutional, everything done ought, and by rights should be repudiated.

Taxation, now as in the days of our fathers, without representation, is a just cause of complaint.

We believe that this government was instituted by white men for white men.

We believe that all white men are born free and equal.

We are opposed to negro suffrage.

We are opposed to negro bureaus.

We are opposed to all military governments.

We believe in equal rights to all white men exclusive privilege to none.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY,

C. W. West.

The Democracy must not forget the fact that a Seymour club will be formed to-night at the court-house. Everybody is invited.

August Election.

Next Monday is the 3d of August, 1868, and it is the day which every freeman should devote to his country. On that day the August election is held by law, and the Democracy of this county, and all the counties of the State, will have the glorious privilege of exercising their rights of suffrage, without the assistance of bayonets or blue clothes. Then with one accord, let us all rise up, early on the 3d of next month, sow our turnip seed, and go immediately to the polls and express our Democratic preferences for white men, and for a white man's government. The man who acts politically after the manner of affairs as above stated, will be certain to live long and happily. His conscience will grow clear—his hope in earthly as well as heavenly things, will grow stronger—and when the great Democratic party has finally triumphed over Radicalism, sin and the devil, we shall all have that peace pervading our country, which passeth all understanding. Something permanent and lasting, and we believe it will never be disturbed again.

To give our friends throughout the United States confidence in our sincerity, and for the purpose of giving Seymour and Blair strength and power, let the Democratic majority in old Harrison, and throughout Kentucky, be largely increased. It will tell for the cause in November, give a glow of hope to our friends in other States, and carry dismay and consternation into the camps of our enemies.

A heavy vote next Monday may prove a death knell to radical reconstruction.

A large vote next Monday may assist to sweep the last rump from his seat in the halls of Congress.

A strong turnout next Monday may ultimate in the entire overthrow of the Radical party.

Then it is the duty of every Democrat to be out and at the polls to cast his vote.

There are quite a number of officers to elect. First among them, is Jno. W. Stevenson, our candidate for Governor. Next comes Jas. O'Hara, candidate for Circuit Judge; J. S. Boyd, Criminal Judge, and Charles Duncan, Commonwealth's Attorney. The above are the State and District officers. Our county candidates, on the Democratic ticket, are Dr. A. J.

Beale, for Circuit Clerk; J. N. Frazer, for Sheriff, and C. W. West, for County Attorney.

The Democracy of this county, it is hoped, will come forward nobly, and stand by her colors.

Go the whole ticket.
Vote steadily;
Vote soberly;
Vote early;
Vote continually;
Vote honestly;
And stay at the polls and assist your Democratic friends to bring up more voters, that every white man may enjoy the right to vote.

That Turnpike Tax.

Our readers must not forget that they have been permitted by an act of the Legislature, to vote for or against a tax to build turnpikes in this county, and that the bill has been so amended that if a majority of the votes cast are for the tax, then it becomes a law, and our magistrates can issue the bonds of the county, for seven hundred and fifty dollars per mile, for every five miles of pike that shall be built in Harrison.

The people who desire good roads to go to any section of the country upon, have now a chance to express their opinion openly and directly, and those of our readers who desire to ride in them as heretofore, can say so.

The building of these turnpikes by taxation will never, in our opinion, impoverish us, but on the other hand, will put money in the pockets of the land owners and farmers.

It will make the hills in the northern portion of our county, blossom and bloom like a garden, and it will bring the arable lands in that section into market, and will double the number of inhabitants.

But we did not intend to write an article in favor or against this proposition, and will therefore leave the whole subject in the hands of the people, whom we are certain will do for the best.

Financial.

A bill has passed both houses of Congress, and the President has made it a law by giving it his signature, for the purpose of paying all the bonds in gold, principal and interest, throwing an immense debt upon the people. This is called the Funding bill, and is the last act of Radicalism, which that infamous party has fastened upon the country. It will be repealed just as certain as the people can defeat the radicals and their candidate for President at the next election. Then comes repudiation. We predict it.

On the 18th inst., Mr. Z. A. Goodman and wife, of Richland, in this county, left their home and went to Robinson's Station, and sent his wife on the morning train, going South, to visit her father, who resides in Bourbon. Mr. G. started for Berry's station, expecting to return home that evening. As he has not been seen or heard from since, serious doubts are entertained by his friends as regards his whereabouts. Any information concerning him, will be thankfully received at this office.

Mrs. Barclay, an intelligent and worthy lady is now in Cynthiana, and has information which every woman should be possessed of. Tuesday evening she lectured to the people of her sex, in this place, and we learn from some of them, that she can be of benefit to all who may take her lessons. She comes well recommended.

THE ARTESIAN WELL.—The artesian well of Mr. McLaughlin, in the rear of the Clinton House, on yesterday reached the depth of eighty feet, when water was found. At the depth of sixty five feet, the workmen came across large numbers of bowlder-stone, exactly like those obtained in the Ohio River. Small sea-shells, lumps of coal &c., are also dug up. Day before yesterday, at the depth of seventy-five feet, an iron spike, about six inches in length, was picked up. How did it come there?—Cin. Eng., of 25th.

A snake twenty-nine and a half feet long, was killed near Triune, Tennessee. It is supposed to be a boa constrictor that escaped some thirty years ago from a menagerie.

Late dispatches from Omaha, say trains are now running 700 miles over the Union Pacific Railroad; 680 miles have already been examined by the United States Commissioners, and pronounced a first class road, in every respect. Twenty thousand men are at work, and it is expected that not less than 900 miles will be finished this year, and that the whole line to the Pacific may be opened in 1869.

At a late meeting of the London Medical Society, Dr. Blake, a distinguished practitioner, said that he was able to cure the most desperate case of toothache, unless the disease was connected with rheumatism, by the application of the following remedy: Allum reduced to an impalpable powder, two drachms; nitrous spirits of ether, seven drachms; and apply to the tooth.

COVINGTON MARKETS.

Lassitude.

A feeling of lassitude is generally experienced throughout the summer solstice. Weakly constituted people or those of sedentary habits invariably complain of this annoyance. The scorching heat of mid-summer relaxes the system and reduces the vital energies. If the patient is of a nervous temperament this debility unites him for even the routine of every day life. When this state of exhaustion comes on Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will prove a safe and never failing means of strengthening and restoring the physical organization. This health-giving tonic purifies and infuses renewed vitality into the blood, tones the stomach and digestive organs, and acts like a charm on the nervous system. The infirmities of age are alleviated by its use. When mothers are nursing, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should especially be taken in regular doses, as in this country, most always, the nursing mother is inadequate to the wants of the child. In such cases this invigorating tonic is wonderfully efficacious. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild and soothing.

THE NEWS

Cynthiana, Ky., July 30, '68.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. J. M. Dill purchased a splendid mare from Milton Rankin, last week, for which he paid $250.

Prof. Hopkins is teaching a large and popular singing school in this place. Everybody should learn to sing.

On the 8th of this month John M. Stump was thrown from his horse and his shoulder and arm broken.

Mr. M. D. Whitaker left at our office some timothy grass, which is 7 feet 3 inches long. We consider this an unusual length.

Mrs. Wm. T. Magee, will accept our thanks, for the fine blackberries laid on our table. They were the finest we have ever seen.

On Friday night last, the grocery store of Coppage and Ledge, on Main street, was robbed of some 50 pounds of bacon and considerable flour.

Mr. J. S. Whaley, of Harrison county, has three excellent cows, which have five steer calves. They look well and are doing well. Who can make a better showing.

D. A. Givens says: his accounts are now due, or rather past due and that he takes no pleasure in dining his patrons. All persons in arrears will therefore call and liquidate their indebtedness without delay, as the money is needed and must be forthcoming.

The Democracy of Fendleton will hold a grand mass meeting at Falmouth next Thursday. All the great guests of the party will be in attendance; with a band of music. Everybody is invited, especially the people of Harrison.

Our enterprising fellow-citizen Cyrus Cook, is just on the eve of building a new ware house, near his distillery in this city, which when finished, will be 80 feet deep, 40 feet wide, and 4 stories high. So we go—and "whisky in the jug."

There will be a grand picnic given in Uncle Joe Shawhan's woods next Saturday. Everybody is invited and expected to come and bring their baskets, as a good time is anticipated. Good music will be in attendance.

Maginley's & Carroll's great Legitimate Circus will give two grand exhibitions in this city on Wednesday, August 5, 1868. This Circus is spoken of by the press as one of the best organized companies now traveling. Let everybody turn out.

We are pleased to announce that the health of Bishop Forsythe is improving. His daughter, Mrs. Seaton, is on a visit at her father's house with her sweet, little infant. We hope she may find her visit among her old friend as agreeable as she would desire it should be.

Last Monday, our city was visited by one of the best circuses that has ever passed through Kentucky. The management, Messrs. Hemmings, Cooper & Whitby, are all gentlemen, and they give general satisfaction wherever they go. If Kentuckians desire to see a good show go and see the one from Philadelphia.

Mr. J. J. Good, on Main Street, Gunsmith & Co., is the agent of Singers Sewing Machine. It is the best machine in Kentucky or the world. There are more of these machines used than any other that are manufactured, as the statistics show that there are five thousand more sold annually than any other. Call and examine this machine in comparison with others and you will have no other.

BIG SHEEP.—Mr. J. W. Smith, of Bourbon, has purchased a weather from the wife of Robt. Scott, of this county, which weighs 300 pounds. He gave her $30 to be received on the 25th of next December. For each additional 25 pounds he is to pay $5 extra. This sheep will be presented to Mr. O. A. Gilman. It is the largest weather in the world, and a premium of $5 will be given to any man who has a better one.

A New York company, is about building a Saw-mill eight miles below Falmouth, which when finished will cost one hundred thousand dollars.

We learn that Berry's Station has taken a new move, and is placing itself on the list for improvements. Messrs. Johnson & Marks, of that place, have just finished a merchants flouring mill, with two run of stone, with which they furnish the people of that section in good flour. Their machinery is all new and splendid. C. F. Walter, an experienced mill-right, is the builder. We are pleased to know that our friends in that place, are moving up.

We are informed that Festus Reneker, son of Harry Reneker, cut a garter snake in two last week, which contained eighty young ones. Don't talk to us about your Triune monsters again, with this number of snakes in view. Persons in search of the "delectious triangles," should apply to our friend Festus, who will furnish a good supply very cheap, for exhibitions of this kind, in the boots.

A RADICAL POW WOW.—On next Saturday, August 1st, 1868, the Republicans will hold a grand love-feast at Falmouth. Col. Baker, Gen. Croxton and Ira Root, Esq., will address the meeting. The officers of the late 7th Kentucky cavalry, will hold a meeting on that day to select a place for the purpose of holding a reunion of the regiment. Everybody is respectfully invited to attend. A good brass and string band will be in attendance, and plenty to eat.

THE NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH.—We have heard it intimated by responsible persons, that it was their intention to make quite a liberal donation to the Catholic Church in this place, for the purpose of enabling the people of that persuasion to erect a suitable house to worship in. We are requested to say, to those citizens, who design to contribute means for that purpose, that the time is already at hand when the "material aid" will be most welcome. Father Brantz will be in Cynthiana soon, and will receive the donations.

What I am going to say about the fair sex of Cynthiana and vicinity, will surprise, if not startle you. It is a pernicious evil, and every well wisher of the ladies should exert him or herself to try and induce them to discontinue this hateful, as hurtful and nasty practice as chewing tobacco.

I know that some of my sex will not thank me for exposing this filthy habit; but inasmuch as it is such a growing evil to the rising generation, that I have been induced to call your attention to the same, hoping thereby that you may lend your influence to mitigate the evil.

What would you say if I were to tell you that there are little girls not more than ten years of age, using tobacco and snuff, in this community? Such is the fact. They learn this filthy habit from their mothers and elder sisters; some of whom chew from a quarter to a half pound every week of their existence. Can't some method be devised, whereby good can come out of evil? Would it not be well to get up an anti-chewing tobacco society, in Cynthiana?

Yours, MOLLIE.

Our young and energetic friend Frank Curl, is still engaged in that laudible business of house building, and can finish a job as quickly and as neatly as any carpenter in Cynthiana.

By the way, we know a good one on Frank, which we must be excused for publishing.

When Gen. Morgan started with his brigade into Kentucky, and made that famous raid into Ohio, by orders from the war department, the 9th regiment of cavalry commanded by Col. Breckinridge, of Lexington, was not permitted to accompany the General. The regiment, almost to a man, was very much chagrined, that they should be held back for piquet duty to Bragg's army, while their comrades in arms were permitted to go and hunt and whip the enemy. Evidences of dissatisfaction were perceptible in every company. Morgan had not been gone from Woodville, Tennessee, very long, before a caucus was secretly held inside the camping ground of the 9th, and the brave boys of that invincible regiment, many of them resolved to follow Morgan at all hazard; and the night following the caucus, a large number of the soldiers of that regiment left the camp with their faces turned toward Kentucky. They had not proceeded far before a halt was called, and an organization formed. Sargeant Frank Curl was made Colonel commanding, and dubbed "Colonel Conrod." Not many days afterwards most of the men received an order from Colonel Breckinridge to return, and if we remember correctly, "Colonel Conrod" went back with them; but we are also informed that he was never fully restored to the confidence of his old Colonel, notwithstanding the fact that he was among the worthiest of that regiment. From that day to this Frank Curl has borne the sobriquet of "Colonel Conrod," and we hail him now, with the rank which his comrades gave him on the memorable night of the organization.

On last Saturday evening our old friend and fellow-citizen, W. W. Cleary, Esq., arrived in Cynthiana, his first visit to his "old Kentucky home" since 1862. He went through a regular shaking of hands, after the old Kentucky fashion, not pump-handle style, but with that honest will which guarantees a hearty welcome. We give him a welcome:

"Home again, home again,
From a foreign shore,
And oh, it fills our hearts with joy,
To meet our friends once more."

MARRIED.
On the 16th inst, at the Metropolitan hotel, in Cincinnati, by the Rev. Mr. Worrell, Mr. R. Dillard Lowe, of Lowe's station, to Miss Georgia Huttell, of Bourbon.

OUR ROYAL CLUB COFFEE, which we shall sell at the low price of 35c. per pound, and warrant it give perfect satisfaction. We specially request our friends when they send us drafts, checks, or post office orders, to make them payable to the order of Ross & Houston

GETTING UP CLUBS.
Country clubs, hand and wagon peddlers and small stores can have their orders promptly and faithfully filled, and in case of clubs can have each party's name marked on their packages and directed by sending their orders to Nos. 3 & 5 Mound street. Some parties inquire of us how they shall proceed to get up a club. The answer is simply this: Let each person say how much tea and coffee he wants, and select the kind and price from our price list, as published in the paper or in our circulars. Write the names, kinds and amount plainly on a list, and when the club's complete send it to us by mail, and we will put each party's goods in separate packages, and mark the name upon them, with the cost, so there need be no confusion in their distribution; each party getting exactly what he orders and no more. The cost of the transportation the members can divide equally among themselves. Parties sending clubs or other orders for less than $50 had better send post office drafts, or money with their orders, to save the expense of collecting by express; but larger orders we will forward by express to collect on delivery. Hereafter we will send a complimentary package to the party getting up the club. Our profits are small, but we will be as liberal as we can afford. We send no complimentary package for clubs of less than $50. We warrant all the goods we sell to give entire satisfaction. If they are not satisfactory they can be returned at our expense within 30 days, and have the money refunded. In addressing us by letter upon any subject, direct to

BEDDING.

THIS Company owns the right for Middle and Southern Ohio, Indiana, and Northern Kentucky. As every mattress is made at the company's Principal depot,
in Cincinnati, we will guarantee their quality.
We do not sell the Mattress or Pillow
Sponge except in manufactured goods.
Upholsterers' orders filled for Elastic Cushion Sponges, in bales, for Furniture and carriage upholstery.
Special estimates made for cushioning
churches, halls, &c.
Discounts made to the trade.

The Advantages Claimed by us for Elastic Sponge, over Curled Hair or Feathers, are as follows:

- 1st. Its superior and permanent elasticity, which is not in the least affected by changes of temperature, nor by any reasonable lapse of time.
  - 2d. Its unrivalled cleanliness. It is entirely free from insect life, from dust, or any source of decay.
  - 3d. Its cheapness. It goes further in the manufacture of upholstery than any substance now used. It is obvious that the purchaser gets the benefit of this economical quality.
  - 4th. Its healthfulness. Feathers and hair being animal substances, exhale
a characteristic and well-known odor.
- After a continued and thorough trial of three years and a halt by many of the best upholsterers in the United States, we feel authorized by their concurrent testimony in asserting that we can now supply that great desideratum—an unexceptionally good bed at a moderate price.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable,
healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored
to its original color with the gloss and
freshness of youth.
Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed.
But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous.
Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,
nothing else can be found so desirable.
Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Establishment where we will be pleased to secure old and new friends, who may wish work in our line. We keep constantly on hand a good supply of SADDLES, Harness, Bridles, Collars, and everything in the Saddle and Harness line.
Repairing done promptly, with neatness, and in a workmanlike manner.
The public generally are invited to call and examine our stock, as we are satisfied that we shall be able to render general satisfaction.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys,
is derived from its cures,
many of which are truly marvellous. Inverigate cases of scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and renovated by its use. It cures all scrofulous affections and disorders, which were generally considered incurable, and which have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this poison enters the system, and invades the organs, undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its heinous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it may be present by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcers on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla:
1. St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas,
Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also, in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Liver and Kidney diseases, the scrofulous and venereal system.
2. Syphilis or Venereal Disease, cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Mercurial poison, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine.
But long continued use of this medicine will cure
the complaint, or Leucorrhoea, or White, or Green, Ulcers, and Female Diseases, are com-
